JOSEPH DINA NATH,
Deputy Secretary.

Assented to on 22-12-73.

THE KONKAN PASSENGER SHIPS (ACQUISITION)

ACT, 1973

Act No. 62 of 1973

AN

to provide for the acquisition and transfer of the Konkan passenger ships in order to serve better the needs of the maritime passengers of the Konkan coastal region and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto,

Whereas Messrs. Chowgule Steamships Limited, a company, was running the Konkan coastal passenger shipping service;

And whereas the Konkan coastal passenger shipping service, which was suspended owing to the monsoons, was to be resumed by the said company by the first week of September, 1973, but has not yet been resumed, and the non-resumption of such passenger service is causing undue hardship to the maritime passengers of the Konkan coastal region;

And whereas complaints have been received by the Central Government to the effect that the Konkan coastal passenger shipping service was not being run by the said company according to schedule and that the said service was irregular, unpunctual and undependable;

And whereas in the interests of the maritime passengers of the Konkan coastal region it is urgently necessary to resume the Konkan coastal passenger shipping service and for that purpose to acquire the ships, known as "Konkan Sevak" and "Sarita" with which the said passenger shipping service was being run by the said company.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-fourth year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This act may be called the Konkan Passenger Ships (Acquisition) Act, 1973.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 7th day of November, 1973.

2 Definitions.—(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,

- (a) "appointed day" means the 7th day of November, 1973;
- (b) "company" means the Chowgule Steamships Limited, being a company as defined in the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), and having its registered office in the Union territory of Goa, Daman and Diu;
- (c) "Government company" has the meaning assigned to it by section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956);
- (d) "Konkan coast" means that part of the western coast of India which is commonly known as the "Konkan coast";
- (e) "Konkan passenger ships" means the passenger ships, known as "Konkan Sevak" and "Sarita", and owned by the company.

(2) Words and expressions used in this Act and not defined but defined in the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958 (44 of 1958) have the meanings respectively assigned to them in that Act.

CHAPTER II

ACQUISITION OF THE KONKAN PASSENGER SHIPS

3. Acquisition of the Konkan passenger ships.—On the appointed day, the ownership of the Konkan passenger ships shall, by virtue of this Act, stand transferred to, and vest in, the Central Government free from all incumbrances.

4. Power of Central Government to direct vesting of Konkan passenger ships in a Government company.—

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 3, the Central Government may, if it is satisfied that a Government company is willing to comply, or has complied, with such terms and conditions as that Government may think fit to impose, direct, by an order in writing, that the ownership in relation to the Konkan passenger ships shall, instead of continuing to vest in the Central Government, vest in that Government company either on the date of publication of the direction or on such earlier or later date (not being a date earlier than the appointed day) as may be specified in the direction.

(2) Where an order vesting the ownership of the Konkan passenger ships in any Government company is made under sub-section (1), all the rights, liabilities and obligations, of the Central Government in relation to such ships shall, on and from the date of such vesting, be deemed to have become the rights, liabilities and obligations, respectively, of the Government company.

5. General effect of vesting.—(1) For the purposes of section 3, the Konkan passenger ships shall be deemed to include all assets, rights, powers, authorities, privileges and all properties in the ships, all rights under any policy of insurance, licence or any other instrument, and all other properties belonging to or held for the purpose of running, the ships (or for which any order has been placed by the company), including fuels, stores, machinery, apparatus, navigational aids, maps, charts, spare tail shafts, spare propellers and other spare parts, whether on board or on the shore.

(2) If on the appointed day any suit, appeal or other proceeding of whatever nature in relation to any business of the company relating to the Konkan coastal passenger shipping service or the Konkan passenger ships is pending by or against the company, the same shall not abate, be discontinued or be, in any way, prejudicially affected by reason of the transfer of the Konkan passenger ships, or of anything contained in this Act, but the suit, appeal or other proceeding may be continued, prosecuted and enforced by or against the company.

6. Central Government to become the lessee in respect of shore properties, etc.—(1) On and from the appointed day, a permanent lease shall be deemed to have been granted by the company in favour of the Central Government or the Government company, as the case may be, in respect of every property, movable and immovable (including jetties, wharves and other property needed for navigational purposes), on the shores of the Konkan coast and owned and used by the company immediately before the suspension of the Konkan coastal passenger shipping service for running the said service.

(2) The lease referred to in sub-section (1) shall be held by the Central Government or the Government company, as the case may be, on such terms and conditions and on the payment of such rent as may be mutually agreed upon by and between the company and the Central Government or the Government company and, in default of such agreement, as may be determined by the principal civil court of original jurisdiction within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the property in question is situated.

(3) Where any property, movable or immovable (including jetties, wharves and other property needed for navigational purposes), on the shores of the Konkan coast was used by the company for running the Konkan coastal passenger shipping service and was held by it, immediately before the appointed day, under any lease or other agreement, the Central Government or the Government company, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have become substituted in place of the company as the lessee of such property or as party to such other agreement, as the case may be, and shall hold such lease or other agreement on the same terms and conditions on which it was being held by the company immediately before the appointed day.

7. Central Government or Government company not to be liable for prior liabilities.—(1) Every liability of the company in relation to the Konkan passenger ships in respect of any period prior to the appointed day shall be enforceable against it and not against the Central Government or the Government company.

(2) For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that—

(a) no claim for wages, provident fund, pension, gratuity, cesses, taxes or wharfage or any other dues in respect of any period prior to the appointed day in relation to the Konkan passenger ships shall be enforceable against the Central Government or the Government company;

- (b) no award, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority in relation to the Konkan passenger ships or any of them, whether passed before or after the appointed day, in relation to any matter, claim or dispute which arose before the appointed day shall be enforceable against the Central Government or the Government company;
- (c) no liability for the contravention of any provision of law for the time being in force, made before the appointed day, shall be enforceable against the Central Government or the Government company.

8. Duty to deliver possession of Konkan passenger ships.—(1) Notwithstanding any decree, judgment or order of any court or anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any contract or other instrument, the company or any other person having possession of the Konkan passenger ships, shall deliver possession of such ships to the Central Government or the Government company forthwith.

(2) The Central Government may take or cause to be taken all necessary steps for securing possession of the Konkan passenger ships, the ownership of which has vested in it under section 3.

(3) Any person having in his possession, custody or control any books, documents or other papers relating to the Konkan passenger ships or any of them shall be liable to account for the said books, documents or other paper to the Central Government or to such person as that Government may specify in this behalf:

Provided that where common books, documents or other papers are maintained by the company in relation to the Konkan passenger ships or any of them and other ships, copies of so much of the books, documents and other papers as relate to the Konkan passenger ships or any of them shall be delivered forthwith to the Central Government or the person specified by that Government.

9. Duty to furnish inventory of articles on the ships.—The company shall, within such period as the Central Government may allow in this behalf, furnish to that Government a complete inventory, as on the appointed day, of the assets, instruments, apparatus and all other properties, whether on board or on the shores or elsewhere, in relation to the Konkan passenger ships.

CHAPTER III

PAYMENT OF AMOUNT

10. Payment of amount.—(1) The company shall be given by the Central Government, in cash,—

- (a) for the vesting in it, under section 3, of the ownership of the Konkan passenger ships, and
- (b) for the vesting in it under section 6, of the rights specified therein, an amount equal to a sum of rupees ninety lakhs.

(2) In addition to the amount specified in sub-section (1), the Central Government shall re-imburse the company to the extent of the expenses actually incurred by it for the annual survey of the Konkan passenger ships for the year 1973.

11. Amount due to the Shipping Development Fund Committee to be deducted in the first instance.—(1) Out of the amount referred in section 10, the Central Government shall deduct, in the first instance, any amount due from the company to the Shipping Development Fund Committee in relation to the Konkan passenger ships and shall pay the sum so deducted to that Committee, and on such payment, the liability of the company in relation to the said ships shall, to the extent of such payment, stand discharged.

(2) The deductions referred to in sub-section (1) shall have priority over all other creditors, whether secured or unsecured.

CHAPTER IV

MISCELLANEOUS

12. Effect of Act on other laws.—The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything in consistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force or any instrument having effect by virtue of any law other than this Act or any decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority.

13. Contracts, etc., cease to have effect unless ratified by the Central Government or Government company.—

(1) Every contract entered into by the company for any service, sale or supply in relation to the Konkan passenger ships and in force immediately before the appointed day shall, on and from the expiry of thirty days from the appointed day, cease to have effect as against the Central Government or the Government company unless such contract is, before the expiry of the said period of thirty days, ratified, in writing, by the Central Government or the Government company, as the case may be, and in ratifying such contract the Central Government or the Government company may make such alterations or modifications therein as the circumstances of the case may require:

Provided that the Central Government or the Government company shall not omit to ratify a contract unless it is satisfied that such contract is unduly onerous or has been entered into in bad faith or is detrimental to the interests of the Konkan coastal passenger shipping service.

(2) The Central Government or the Government company shall not omit to ratify a contract or make any alteration or modification therein except after giving to the parties to the contract a reasonable opportunity of being heard, and except after recording, in writing, its reasons for refusal to ratify the contract or for the alteration or modification of the contract.

14. Penalties.—Any person who,—

- (a) having in his possession, custody or control any property forming part of the Konkan passenger ships or any of them, wrongfully withholds such property from the Central Government or the Government company, or
- (b) wrongfully obtains possession of, or retains, any property forming part of the Konkan passenger ships or any of them, or

- (c) wilfully withholds or fails to furnish to the Central Government or any person specified by that Government, any document, or copy or part thereof, relating to the Konkan passenger ships or any of them which may be in his possession, custody or control or fails to deliver to the Central Government or the Government company and assets, books of account, registers or other documents in his custody relating to the Konkan passenger ships or any of them or copy of the relevant part of such documents, or
- (d) wilfully fails to furnish an inventory as required by section 9, or furnishes an inventory which he knows, or has reasonable cause to believe, to be false, or
- (e) wrongfully removes or destroys any property forming part of the Konkan passenger ships or any of them or prefers any claim which he knows, or has reasonable cause to believe to be false or grossly inaccurate, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

15. Offences by companies.—(1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where any offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to, any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

- (a) "Company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and
- (b) "director", in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

16. Protection of action taken in good faith.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or the Government company or any of its officers or other employees for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

17. Cognizance of offences.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898), no court shall take cognizance of any offence against this Act except on a complaint, in writing, made by the Central Government or any officer authorised in this behalf by that Government.

18. Delegation of powers.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that all or any of the powers exercisable by it under this Act may also be exercised by such person or persons as may be specified in the notification.

(2) Whenever any delegation of power is made under sub-section (1), the person to whom such power has been delegated shall act under the direction, control and supervision of the Central Government.

19. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(2) Every rule made by the Central Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or in more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

20. Repeal and saving.—(1) The Konkan Passenger Ships (Acquisition) Ordinance, 1973 (4 of 1973), is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the Ordinance so repealed (including any declaration or order made thereunder), shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act.

Assented to on 28-12-73.

THE INDUSTRIES (DEVELOPMENT AND REGULATION) AMENDMENT ACT, 1973

(Act No. 67 of 1973)

AN

further to amend the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Industries (Development and Regulation) Amendment Act, 1973.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Amendment of section 10.—In section 10 of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951 (65 of 1951) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act),—

(i) in sub-section (3), for the words "containing such particulars as may be prescribed", the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"containing the productive capacity of the industrial undertaking and such other particulars as may be prescribed";

(ii) after sub-section (3), the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:—

"(4) The owner of every industrial undertaking to whom a certificate of registration has been issued under this section before the commencement of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Amendment Act, 1973, shall, if the undertaking falls within such class of undertakings as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, produce, within such period as may be specified in such notification, the certificate of registration for entering therein the productive capacity of the industrial undertaking and other prescribed particulars.

(5) In specifying the productive capacity in any certificate of registration issued under sub-section (3), the Central Government shall take into consideration the productive or installed capacity of the industrial undertaking as specified in the application for registration made under sub-section (1), the level of production immediately before the date on which the application for registration was made under sub-section (1), the level of the highest annual production during the three years immediately preceding the introduction in parliament of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Amendment Bill, 1973 the extent to which production during the said period was utilised for export and such other factors as the Central Government may consider relevant including the extent of under-utilisation of capacity, if any, during the relevant period due to any cause."

3. Amendment of section 24.—In sub-section (1) of section 24 of the principal Act, in clause (i) after the word, brackets and figure "sub-section (1)", where they occur for the first time, the words, brackets and figure "or sub-section (4)" shall be inserted.

4. Amendment of the First Schedule.—In the First Schedule to the principal Act, under the heading "38. MISCELLANEOUS INDUSTRIES"; the item "Cigarettes." shall be numbered as item (1), and after the item as so numbered, the following item shall be inserted, namely:—

"(2) Linoleum, whether felt based or jute based."

Assented to on 28-12-73

THE MULKI RULES (REPEAL) ACT, 1973

(Act No. 66 of 1973)

AN

ACT

to provide for the repeal of Mulki Rules.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Republic of India as follow:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Mulki Rules (Repeal) Act, 1973.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Definition.—In this Act, "Mulki Rules" shall have the same meaning as in the Mulki Rules Act, 1972 (79 of 1972).

3. Repeal of Mulki Rules.—Upon the commencement of this Act, the Mulki Rules as in force immediately before such commencement shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Mulki Rules Act, 1972 (79 of 1972), cease to have effect and are hereby repealed:

Provided that such repeal shall not affect the validity of any appointment previously made in accordance with those rules.

Assented to on 25-12-1973.

THE INCOME-TAX (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1973

(Act No. 66 of 1973)

AN

further to amend the Income-tax Act, 1961.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Income-tax (Amendment) Act, 1973.

2. Amendment of sections 269D and 269P.—In the Income-tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act),—

(a) In section 269D, in sub-section (1), in the first proviso, and in sub-clause (i) of clause (a) of the second proviso, for the words "six months", the words "nine months" shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, substituted;

(b) in section 269P, in sub-section (1), the following shall be inserted at the end with effect from the 1st day of January, 1974, namely:—

"Provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply in relation to any document which purports to transfer any immovable property for an apparent consideration not exceeding ten thousand rupees.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this proviso, "apparent consideration" shall have the meaning assigned to it in clause (a) of section 269A subject to the modifications that for the expressions "immovable property transferred" and "instrument of transfer" occurring in that clause, the expressions "immovable property purported to be transferred" and "document purporting to transfer such immovable property" shall, respectively, be substituted."

3. Validation.—(1) No notice for the initiation of proceedings for the acquisition of any immovable property under Chapter XXA of the principal Act which was issued by the competent authority before the commencement of this Act for publication in the Official Gazette, in the exercise of or the purported exercise of the powers under section 269D of the principal Act, shall be called in question merely on the ground that such notice was not published in the Official Gazette before the expiration of a period of six months from the end of the month in which the instruments of transfer in respect of such property was registered under the Registration Act, 1908 (16 of 1908), if such notice was either published in the Official Gazette before the expiration of a period of nine months from the end of the month in which the instrument of transfer in respect of such property was registered under the Registration Act, 1908, or could not be so published within the said period of nine months by reason of any injunction or order of any court.

(2) Every notice, which by virtue of the provisions of sub-section (1) shall not be called in question as provided therein, shall be deemed to have been issued in accordance with law and shall, for the purposes of sub-section (1) of section 269D of the principal Act, be deemed to have operated or, where such notice is published in the Official Gazette after the commencement of this Act, to operate, to initiate the proceedings for the acquisition of the immovable property to which such notice relates on the date of publication of such notice in the Official Gazette:

Provided that—

(a) the jurisdiction of a competent authority in respect of any such property may be called in question before the expiry of the period specified in sub-section (3) of section 269B of the principal Act, or a period of thirty days from the commencement of this Act, whichever period expires later;

(b) objections against the acquisition of any such immovable property may be made under section 269E of the principal Act within the period allowed under that section or a period of forty-five days from the commencement of this Act, whichever period expires later.
